Mike Shimke was in town Wednesday.

Willie Walker is very ill with pneumonia.

Sam Smyser was up from Alliance Monday.

Ira Reed was in town on official business Saturday.

A. H. McLaughlin brought in the returns from Lawn precinct.

C. Olds and W. M. Iodence went to Alliance Tuesday evening.

Roy Brown has been visiting with his parents here for a few weeks.

Miss Alexander is visiting with her mother, Mrs. Alexander, for a few weeks.

S. W. Christy of Johnson, Neb., disposed of a car load of apples to our merchants this week.

C. Olds has two extra 'phones for sale at $14.05 each. Anyone wanting one can see same at postoffice.

The line of telephones west of town will be complete in a short time. The wire is being put up this week.

Everett Loring, a cousin of F. J. Lyon, the B. & M. agent here, was killed at Laramie, Wyo., in a railroad accident last week.

A Holloween social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Funk under the auspices of the Epworth League was a very enjoyable affair and well attended.

G. W. Loer received a handsome majority from the voters Tuesday. Mr. Loer has reason to be proud of the endorsement and vindication he received.

S. T. Hueke loaded a car for Belgrade Mont., Tuesday. Sam disposed of all his stock at public auction a week ago Thursday, realizing good prices. He will be employed in A. J. Palmer's mill during the winter or until he can find something more favorable.

Jerry Wells, Will Roth, Geo. Behner, Mrs. Mehrkens, Henry Brus, Andrew Techacher, A. S. Eneyart, Luke Phillips, S. S. Wright, C. C. Hueke, Fred Hueke, A. Hueke, Andrew Johnson, G. Nordness, Peter Anderson and Peter Swanson were among those who attended the Oldtag sale Thursday.

Willie Esancy was given a surprise party at Mrs. Sherwood's Tuesday evening. Willie was well liked by all his classmates and did well in his studies. He was the soul of honor, conscientious and industrious in school and always had a job during vacation. A young man of Willie's disposition and ability is bound to get on and up in the world. He went out to Fred Neeland's Wednesday and expects to go to Omaha Monday with cattle from Hay Springs.

We are pleased to chronicle the marriage this week of Miss Clara Moe to Mr. P. O. Styre of Albert Lea, Minn. Mr. Styre is a merchant and is said to be a well-to-do and upright citizen. Miss Moe was a schoolmate of the writer. She was one of the brightest girls in school and since has attended a seminary in Minnesota. Thus she is fitted to be a helpmate indeed to the man of her choice. They will depart soon for their new home in Minnesota and take with them the well wishes of a host of friends in this county.

Arthur Donovan and Miss Addie Brown were married at Alliance Monday. We are not personally acquainted with the groom, but he is said to be an enterprising young man of fine habits and character. The bride is well known here, being a Box Butte county girl and one of the many of which the county may well be proud. These young people will live on the Steve Brown ranch southwest of town and Mrs. Brown will probably go to the Hills to be with her husband who is employed there. We congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Donovan and trust they will find married life all they have pictured it to be.

Some have asked us what the law is in regard to railroad crossings being held by freight trains. We have had the matter looked up and find they have a right to hold it for continuous passage only, and if they stop to take water they must cut the crossing. This of course would be too much to ask or expect but it does look like they could do a little better with the north crossing. There is a fine of $50 for holding a crossing. Alonzo Sherwood is justice of the peace and W. M. Fosket is constable. A warrant sworn out before Sherwood could be served immediately and the business all done up "while you wait," and in much less time than the time many people have to wait. The conductor has charge of a train so he would be the man to bear the responsibility. Several have asked us what could be done and the above is what a lawyer told us. We would recommend forbearance, but whenever forbearance ceases to be a virtue we should do what we legally could do.

W. L. Walker was elected assessor; Alonzo Sherwood and Isaac Rockey, justices of the peace; Clyde Whelan and W. M. Fosket, constables; Luke Phillips, road overseer for Dorsey precinct.
